

T.E.A.M. ELAM

Come out and join,

Riviera Beach native, Jacoby Brissett, hometown N.F.L. player, along with Tommylee Lewis and The Team Elam Foundation are partnering with they City of Riviera Beach Police Department and Parks and Recreation to provide a community bike giveaway, bike ride, day in the park, and kickball tournament along with the community resources. The Start of the Cycle event will be a one-day event held on July 16th at Wells Recreation Center.

The event is titled Start the Cycle. The goal of this event is to create unity and accountability within the city as we stand together in bettering our community.

Jacoby is a native of Riviera Beach, born, raised, and currently resides. His goal is to quarterback his community by bringing everyone together, creating positive change, and inspiring our youth to strive to achieve their goals.

The T.E.A.M. Elam foundation, which stands for Together Everyone Achieves More with T.E.A.M. Elam, is a non-profit organization founded by former N.F.L. player Abram Elam along with his brother Matt Elam.

Established to help combat violence and negative influences by introducing the youth to an array of positive impacts and providing them with the skills, knowledge, and confidence to succeed in life through our provided programs, committed role models, and inspiring community events.

Our goals are to inspire the city to lock arms and stand together to be the driving force to see our city become one of the best cities in the country.

Riviera Beach Parks and Receptions goal is to provide resources to assist the community, especially our youth, that will allow them to grow to become the next wave of leaders our country needs.

The Riviera Beach Police Department is working with the community to make our city safe and unified, so we can promote accountability to be the change we need across the country. Donations can also be made to the City of Riviera Beach Police Foundation at 600 West Blue Heron Blvd., Riviera Beach, FL. 33404.

The City of Rivera Beach Parks and Recreation offers a host of exciting programs and activities that cater to individuals and families. Whether swimming, little league football, or rental facilities for family-styled events, our Parks and Recreation Department is here to serve you.

All proceeds go towards resources for building up the City of Riviera Beach.
